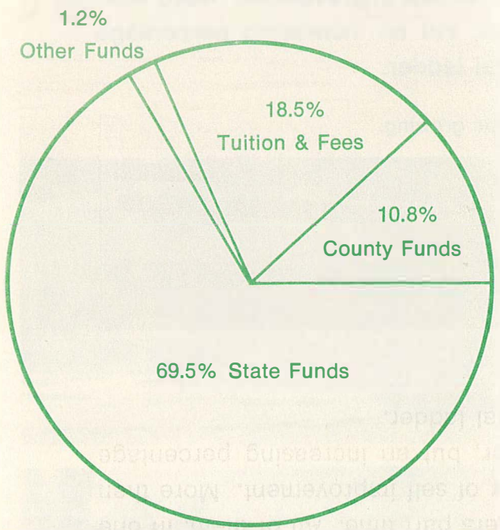
This area of college life grows so quickly, and changes so often that it is almost impossible to know in advance what we will be offering next year. Undoubtedly, the number will increase.

Perhaps you have a suggestion for a workshop for next year.

THE PICTURE ON INCOME AND EXPENDITURE

Our budget balanced at $4,714,569 in 1969-70, up $411,570 from the previous year.

The money came from these sources.



We spent it for these things.

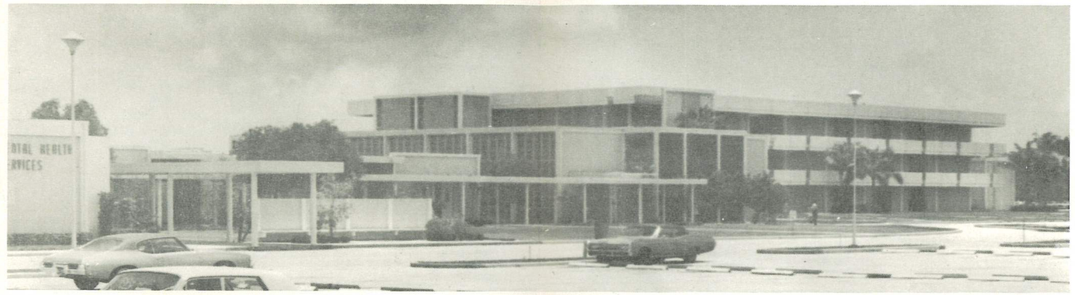
SERVING STUDENTS

During the Fall Term of 1969, 6,078 students were served by Palm Beach Junior College in credit courses, non-credit courses and workshops. This was the largest enrollment at any one time of the year.

Many new individuals were added during the Winter Term and in both Spring Sessions, so that the college served more than 8,000 different persons during the year.

Some of these students were full time, others part time. All of them, in one way or another, wanted to climb the ladder of self improvement. More than half elected to climb the academic ladder, but an increasing percentage each year decide to climb the occupational ladder.

Our physical plant keeps growing.



We moved into our new Administration Building this year.

OCCUPATIONAL LADDERS

In the Fall Term, 1,521 students were enrolled in occupationally oriented courses and programs. Some of these students will be getting on the occupational ladder for the first time. Others will be moving to a different rung.

In the near future they will take their place in the community as industrial and health service technicians, mid-management, or community service and business personnel.

They had these choices in two-year programs leading to an Associate in Science Degree:
